

FILL IN THE BLANK

OUR FAMILY ROAD TRIP

Instructions: Ask a friend or family member for words to fill in the blanks — don't let them know what the story is about! The wackier the words, the better. When you're done, read the story back to them and get ready to laugh!

This past winter break, my _____ family decided to take a drive to America's number-one amusement park, _____ Land. I had dreamed of going there since I was _____ years old!

It took us _____ hours to get there because _____ kept needing to stop to _____. Also, we got lost because we brought the _____ instead of the GPS!

When we finally got there, I had a big _____ on my face. This place was _____! I could see why so many _____ visit every year! But as soon as we got out of the car, _____ realized they forgot their _____ so we had to go back home to get it.

On the drive back, our car ran out of _____, it started to _____ outside and there were only _____ songs on the radio. As soon as our car pulled into the _____ my family all agreed: "That was the _____-est road trip ever!"
